Don't miss "THE GOLDEN AGE" #3, the companion article fanzine of the RB&CC. Contributors include Don Newton, Tom Fagan, Jim Jones, Howard Siegel, Raymond Miller, and others. $1.50 from the SFCA.

ATTENTION ! ALL COLLECTORS OF GREAT COMIC ART !!

The SFCA has now embarked on a new innovation that we feel will open up a whole new field of collecting for the serious comic fan. In the months and years to come, we will be offering what we call "CLASSIC REPRODUCTIONS". These will be big, 10¾ x 13¾, black and white (half tone) reproductions of only the FINEST COMIC ART around. They are printed on heavy, high-quality, 6-ply coated pasteboard. They're suitable for framing, hanging on the wall as is, or collecting in a portfolio. In fact, you may want to buy two copies of some of your favorites, one for your wall, and one for your portfolio.

While we would all like to have a large collection of "original" comic art, the expense of such a collection is pretty discouraging. However these "Classics" (and they are just that), are about the closest thing you can get to an "original", and at a price all fans can afford. But, let's get back to the art itself, for that is really the most important thing. Most, if not all, of these reproductions will be made from original drawings and paintings (mostly paintings) by two of the most talented artists around--John Fantucchio and Don Newton!! Never has a name, "Classic Reproductions", so aptly described an item! Once you buy one, we are sure you will want to collect the entire series, which we feel will be running for years to come. So there is no telling how large your collection will eventually be.

We will try to add at least one, possibly two, new "CR's" to the series as each RB&CC comes out. However, the type of art we require*, naturally, cannot be turned out overnight. We will not be able to include illustrations of these masterpieces here because there are too many. However, you will be seeing smaller versions of some of them in the RB&CC from time to time, because we will be using some of John and Don's RB&CC art for the reproductions too.

*Other artists may submit paintings and drawings, but only the very best will be considered. We repeat, ONLY the very best. So, when you see an artist has had a painting or drawing accepted, you can be sure that artist has turned in an exceptionally fine piece of work. Absolutely no simple line drawings are accepted.

PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

$1.25 each. Two for $2.00, Three for $2.70, Four for $3.20, Over four-70¢ each. If you want your copies mailed first class add 25¢ extra for each "CR" you order.

*Send all orders to: THE SFCA, Dept. "CR", 9875 SW. 212 St., MIAMI, FLORIDA 33157.

Ordering Information: We only have a limted supply of all these various fanzines, so if you see something you want, don't wait too long to order it. However, an asterisk (*) after a particular issue means we only have a few copies left, and when ordering any of those, list alternate choices if possible. Obviously, we do not have room to list the contents of each one, however, suffice it to say, we will only stock what we consider good fanzines. This does not mean that any we do not stock isn't good, because we cannot, of course, stock them all. If you have a fanzine you would be interested in selling in quantity, drop us a copy along with the lowest price you can sell 50 copies to us for. Send all orders (and sample fanzines) to: Ye Olde Fanzine Shop, 9875 SW 212 St., Miami, Fla. 33157. Make checks and money orders payable to THE SPCA. FRAZETTA in FANTASTIC EXPLOITS

Starting with issue No. 15, FANTASTIC EXPLOITS (formerly titled FIGHTING HERO COMICS) will feature Frank~~m~~ Frazetta's famous "White Indian" strips. These will be run in serialized form (1 part in one issue with the 2nd, and concluding, part in the following issue). To insure the best and clearest possible reproduction, the negatives are shot (half tone) directly from the comic, not from a photo copy. Here is the chance of a lifetime for all Frazetta fans to read and collect (via FANTASTIC EXPLOITS) the great White Indian strips at a fraction of what the original comics would cost you. We have around 10 complete stories that we hope to run if F.E. gains fandom's support. It should be noted, however, that each issue will have a ~~very~~ limited printed run, so you should not delay in ordering. The issues that are currently available are listed below. Send all orders to THE SFCA, 9875 S.W. 212 St., Miami, Fla. 33157

comic collectors comments

BY HOWARD F. SIEGEL

PROLOGUE

With this issue, "Comic Collectors Comments" completes its first series.....a sort of an anniversary. Therefore license to re-cap and prescribe the future of the column is in order.

What started as a two page article in RB-CC #61 under the heading "Random Thoughts of a Comic Collector", whose theme was orientated toward the super-hero; has expanded in page count and scope to take in many other phases of the comics. I like to think of the enlarged interest in such as B.L.B.'s, movies, radio, premiums, toys, pulps, etc., as the sign that fandom has outgrown its infancy. It is imperative that these allied interests be catered to, and they shall.

Here then, is what you can expect in forthcoming columns. Here then too, is the notice that because of the increase in publications, many regular features will not appear every issue due to the time it takes to compose them, or needed to give you readers time to respond.....

FANDOM PROFILES.....my favorite because it gives me the opportunity of becoming acquanited with some of the nicest people around. It also allows you younger fans to know who the "elite" of fandom is. You have been introduced (in order) to "Mr. Panelologist", Jerry Bails; the "Historian Emeritus of Fandom", Raymond Miller; the traveling Index Compiler, Mike Nolan; last issue you met G.B. Love and The S.F.C.A.; this issue you'll meet Dick Hoffman, one of our "behind the scenes" specialists. Upcoming will be the "King of B.L.B.'s", Dale Manesis; followed by critic-editor Bob Jennings of "Comic World" fame. Invitations were previously issued to one of the earliest fan-artists (a darn good one), and to a fan who has one foot in the pro ranks, but neither have responded. I am issuing requests shortly to Mr. John Fawcett, probably the top toy and premium collector of all; and fill out the sphere with an artist and letters-to-the-editor critic by way of asking our own Don Newton and Gordon Flagg to participate.....

THE QUIZES.....they'll continue, but on an every-ther-issue basis in order to give everyone a chance to participate, regardless of whether they receive their copies of RB-CC early or late. Hint: get your copies of the Panelologist's "Collectors Guide" now, because the next two quizes were compiled by my son Jeff from this fabulous reference work. They'll be on the small publishing houses of the 1940's; and on super-heroes with the same last names.

REMEMBER....."Highlights of 1978", the satire which appeared in "Golden Age" #3 ? Everyone thought it was laugh provoking, so I'll have a highlights/satire paragraph or two in each issue. A subtle way of needling the pros.....

FOR THE COMPLETIST.....will pop up as long as I can present items that are unavailable except to the trade or those with "ins" with the comic publishing world.....

FANDOM LITERARY EFFORTS.....which deserve a "plug" will get them so that fandom can support itself. My primary interest is in reference works, such as indexes and data guides. They supply the information and guide lines which help the collector. Now this is not an open invitation for every would-be editor to submit his prospectus or samples of his work. I'd rather seek out the potentials myself and remove the onus of an undeserved plug.....

FOR NEWSPAPER STRIP FANS.....short biographies on the newer artists, with some of their personal comments and favorite food recipes. These will not be rehashes of Becker's or Waugh's books.....

FOR B.L.B. FANS.....information taken from Dale Manesis' 1967, 90 piece print run of Whitman's B.L.B. Index.....

FOR PULP MAGAZINE FANS.....notes from the Weinberg-McKinstry "Pulp Heroes Guide" now being readied for publication.....

FROM THE BOOK SHELF.....notes from tomes whose themes are about, or related to comic collecting. Included in this list is "Tarzan Of The Movies", "The Funnies-An American Idiom", "A History Of The Comic Strip", "Classics Of The Silent Screen", "Radio's Golden Age". There will be more.....

GIVEAWAYS.....you read right ! I have some pictures of Superman, Batman, Spiderman taken from toy packages and window streamers that will be available free when you send me a S.A.S.E. Look for announcements about these giveaways in future issues.....

MISCELLANEOUS.....The Panelologist-Comic Collectors Comments data seeking quiz will appear every issue, and there will also be, at the proper time, notes from the forthcoming New York Comicon, and the "Year End Report".....

AND NOW ON TO THE REGULAR COLUMN FOR THIS ISSUE

HATS OFF.....to the Dallascon Group for their localized fan efforts. They put out an excellent quaterly bulletin. I joined the ranks which included Roy Thomas (Who's He ?); Geroge Schwartz, Bill Schelly, Gail Sutton, George Barr, Jerry Bails, Howard Keltner, John Fantucchio, John & Tom McGeehan, Avery B. Klein, Duffy Vohland, and about 300 others who sent in $1.00 for supporting membership. Well worth it.....

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO.....Bruno (Doom Patrol) Premiani, Lee (Ultra the Multi-Alien) Elias, Bernard (Hourman) Baily and Reuben (Kaanga) Moreira ? The letters page of "The Unexpected" #118 tells you.....

AND NOW FOR THIS ISSUE'S FANDOM PROFILE.....

There exists in fandom a select group of experts whose collections and knowledge makes them just that. They are called upon by others to lend their advice and fund of information to various projects such as zine articles and indexes. One of the foremost members of this department has been mentioned as the number one collector of reprints. I present this issue's FANDOM PROFILE.....DICK HOFFMAN.....

Dick and I have several things in common. We both got seriously interested in comics about four years ago. We both have always liked comic magazines, and consumed everything we could get our hands on in our youth. Dick is the father of four children (twice as many as my brood), two of which are also active collectors. One is an ardent Marvel fan. I suspect Dick and I are about the same age.....and that would be around the 40 mark, give or take a few points.

For those of you who do not know what a reprint collector is, let me enlighten you. He specializes in titles that run reprints of newspaper strips that were the best of the '30's. The likes of Tarzan, The Phantom, Prince Valiant, Jungle Jim, Flash Gordon, Katzenkammer Kids, Nancy & Sluggo, etc. Now let's review Dick's collection of some 4500 magazines, since that would tell the whole story.....

Sparkler #1-100; one more of Super Comics is needed to complete the run of #1-121; two more of Ace Comics is needed to complete the run of #1-151; and almost complete runs of Famous Funnies #1-200; King #1-159; Magic #1-80; Tip Top #1-75. He also has reprint runs of Joe Palooka #1-68; Kerry Drake #1-16; Terry and the Pirates #3-26; Dick Tracy #1-85 plus many feature books. He's now completing runs of Popular, Comics On Parade and Big Shot. His collections is rounded out with about 50 Spirit Weeklies thru 1942, and 100 assorted B.L.B.'s. Pulps and gum cards relating to the characters in his collection are present also.

As far as titles are concerned, Dick's interests only span the Golden Age. He has only a passing fancy for today's comics. He does collect runs of super-heroes from the G.A., but these are not collected by any special formula. They are in accordance with his interests. Some are Capt. America 1-18, All-American 1-27, All Star 1-8, Batman 1-8, Bor 3-15, Daredevil 1-18, Walt Disney Comics 1-150, Detective 23-80, Flash 1-15, Heroic 1-12, Looney Tunes 1-10, Nickel 1-8, Planet 1-8, Police 1-25, Smash 1-10. He is in the process of completing runs of Action 1-25 and Marvel Mystery 1-21. He considers his copy of Action #1 as the prize find in his collecting efforts. All in all, this is a fantastic collection, and by today's price standards represents thousands of dollars. No wonder why you'll find Dick Hoffman's name in the acknowledgement sections of so many zines. He certainly has the equipment to fulfill his experts rating.

In his letter to me, Dick mentioned that he considers comic collecting and related items the finest of hobbies. Through it he has been able to acquire many friendships. I'd say that a dynasty has been started in the Hoffman family from the comics Dick saved when he was a kid to the ones now being purchased by his sons. It's encouraging to know that the future fans are now being raised.

What I have given you in this Fandom Profile is a story within a story. An explanation of why so many senior collectors know and respect Dick Hoffman, by listing the major part of his collection.....

ABOUT HERBIE.....Most collectors buy the current products from one source, usually the neighborhood retailer. For many of us, friendships have grown over the years, and it has become somewhat routine to show up at the same time each week and follow the same motions. Let me tell you about my retailer, a nice guy who probably represents your local merchant. His name is Herbie. He's a curly headed blond man with an ever present cigar in his mouth. He is soft spoken and runs a meticulous establishment. To the kids that rush into his store during lunch hour recess and after school, he is Santa Claus, the maitre' de of the local refreshment parlor, and the purveyor of good things all rolled into one. H is is a corner store dealing in toys, stationery, candy and magazines. It is located on the top of a hill, on McLean Avenue, a winding street that cuts the breadth of Yonkers. Like most of his occupational peers, he puts in long hours. Tuesday is his sabbath. Although magazines, especially comics, have produced less and less profit for him over the years, he still maintains a wide area of display. In all my years of store buying, I have never delt with anyone who gets Marvel comics as fast as Herbie. The thing I like best about dealing with him is that he knows exactly what I buy; and as such, always recites the new arrivals as I walk through the door every Monday and Wednesday. His display is quite organized. He keeps each row stocked with one publisher only. The 25¢ giants command a top front area. It's an easy way of knowing whether you've missed anything. I haven't gotten around to it yet, but some day I am going to ask Herbie which titles are his best sellers, and which he could do without. While I am sure that Herbie doesn't read comics, he certainly knows his titles. No doubt a necessity in dealing with the commodity. If your local retailer is like mine, let's salute all the Herbies for their warm consideration, and for just being there when we want to keep our collections going.....

ADAM STRANGE.....My beloved "Thinking Man's Super Hero" (thank you Lon Wolff) looks better than ever thanks to Murphy Anderson's great cover renditions. His have more detail and interpretation than Carmine Infantino's Mystery In Space efforts. Proof: compare SA #224 with MIS #63 ("The Weapon That Swallowed Men").....

FOR THE COMPLETIST.....Capt. America Action Belt, a red-white-blue version of Batman's utility belt made by "Big D" toys in 1966.

Another effort that had limited production due to poor sales when licensed character merchandise played itself out by the forced feeding of Batman stuff during the TV craze. The belt had the "A" symbol and stars & stripes on the pockets, as well as Cap's name. Only about 100 were put on the market.....

BOOK REPORT.....from "Radio's Golden Age" by Frank Buxton & Bill Owen (Easton Valley Press @ 1966) a list of programs that were based on comic strips; or from which comic strips were created :

Archie Andrews	Joe Palooka ****
The Black Hood *	Jungle Jim
Blue Beetle	Lil Abner
Blackstone The Magician	Little Orphan Annie
Bringing Up Father	Lone Ranger ***
Buck Rogers In The 25th Century	Major Hoople
Buster Brown	Mandrake The Magician
Captain Midnight	Mark Trail
Charlie Chan	Mickey Mouse Theater
Cisco Kid	Mr. and Mrs.
Dick Tracy	Popeye The Sailor
Don Winslow Of The Navy	Red Ryder
Flash Gordon 	Reg'lar Fellers
Gasoline Alley	The Sad Sack
Green Hornet 	The Shadow *****
The Gumps	Skippy
Harold Teen	Smilin' Jack
Hop Harrigan	Superman ******
Hopalong Cassidy	Tarzan *******
Jack Armstrong	Terry & The Pirates
Tillie The Toiler	The Timid Soul
	Tom Mix

The list was much larger than I expected. Here are some footnotes :

* = The story of a rookie cop who acquired magic powers by wearing a black hood. From this description I would have to say that it may be MLJ's hero.
 = At one time played by Gale Gordon of Lucille Ball Show fame.
 = A relationship exists between The Lone Ranger and The Green Hornet. The latter is the grand-nephew of the western hero. George W. Trendle created both characters and there are many similarities between the two.
* = At one time played by Alan Reed of The Flintstones fame.
 = At one time played by Orson Welles.
 = Batman and Robin made guest appearances in the radio run.
* = Played by ERB's daughter Joan Burroughs Pierce and her husband and one-time silent screen Tarzan Jim Pierce.

FOR THE PULP FANS.....from A Guide To Pulp Heroes come this bit of interesting information, courtesy of Bob Weinberg: Ka-Zar, the Marvel comic character was first featured in a pulp magazine of the same name. It lasted three issues. The novels were by Robert Byrd. Ka-Zar was raised by a lion and could talk to the animals much like Tarzan and Dr. Doolittle.

There was a Dan Dunn magazine, and a Tailspin Tommy pulp. Both were based on the newspaper strip characters. In December, 1935, there appeared one issue of Flash Gordon, with full color illustrations. More next issue.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1978.....a crescent shaped birthmark on the instep of Rick Jones's left foot reveals him to be the reincarnation of Vishnu. After serving as second banana to every super-hero in the Marvel line, such news causes Rick to go beserk. His last coherent words were "At Last ! At Last! I'm my own super hero !".....

The Teen Titans find Robby Reed's hero dial in some ruins. Wonder Girl becomes Ma Hunkle and Kid Flash, Hawk, Dove, and Speedy turn into Little Boy Blue and the Blue Boys. Robin is still going to college.

MAIL DEPARTMENT.....

MARK CLARK submits this clipping from the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner : "DiMag Loved Comics". It's a revelation that Joltin' Joe liked Superman. His old teammate Lefty Gomez claims that he had to buy the latest issues when the Yankees were on the road because Joe D. was too embarassed to let the public know he read the stuff.

Jerry Bails has some good projects in the works, including a "Who's Who of Comic Book Artists" in collaboration with Hames Ware. He's also working on a complete index to Marvel Comics of the 1960's with Frank Paccasi, who visited Jerry from his home in the Virgin Islands last February to work on the project.

LATE AND GREAT NEWS.....as a result of working with me on his Fandom Profile, DALE MANESIS has reprinted his Whitman Index mentioned previously in this column. It's a 300 print run. The contents page reads as follows: Big and Better Little Books, Big Little Book Premiums, Dell Fast Action Stories, Big Big Books, Nickle Books, Chubby Little Books, Penny Books, Wee Little Books, Tarzan Cup Lid Premiums, Buddy Book Premiums, Famous Comics Cartoon Books, Top-Line Comics, Famous Comics, Tall Comics Books, Story Books, Paint Books, Big Little Book Picture Puzzles, Playing Card Games, Coloring Sets....it's all there. THIS IS A MUST FOR ALL COLLECTORS OF THIS SPECIALTY FIELD. You had better send your dollar in fast. Mail it to Dales Manesis, 2002 N. 49 Street, Milwaukee, Wisc. 53208.....

Quiz winners will be listed next issue....

CAN YOU IDENTIFY.....the source for these DC hero adventures : "Wonder Woman & the Return of Brunhilde"; Plastic Man and "The Invasion of the Plastic Men"; Metamorpho vs. Fumo the Fire Giant"; Aquaman defeats "The Dehydrater" ? Never mind looking thru your comic collection. You'll find these in an LP record album titled "Songs & Stories of the J.L.A." Tifton Records #78005.....

SUPERBOY.....is growing up. The cover masthead now reads "The Adventures of Superman When He Was A Teen".....

QUESTION.....what will DC next do with The Elongated Man, Sargon the Sorcerer, Zatara the Magician and The Vigilante; all of whose last appearances left their futures up in the air....

OPINION.....DC's format change for the Green Lantern will prove a dud. Trying to solve social injustices is the Teen Titan's or Batman's bag. Suggestion: stick to the inter-planetary policeman theme.....

THE COMICS CODE.....surely you must have thought about it. Alter Ego #10 did us all a service by printing it, plus a story about the authorities function. Thanks Roy.....

CAPTAIN COMET.....of early Strange Adventures fame had major & minor costume changes in every issue from #9 (his origin) to #24, a check of the covers and stories reveal. So let's not complain about Henry Pym. Speaking of STRANGE ADVENTURES.....these early issues had some interesting stories, such as a green skinned human before the Hulk (#10); a space age version of Philip Nolan, the "Man Without A Country" (#19); three earths before the J.L.A.-J.S.A. stories (#10).....

some space left, so I'll move up my schedule and offer a

GIVEAWAY.....I have a large quantity of Superman pictures. These are approx. 4" X 6", full color of The Man of Steel in his famous hands-on-hips pose. The picture is printed on 22 pt. clay coated board with a lacquer finish. It's yours for the asking by sending me a S.A.S.E. with the word "Superman" on the front. Plenty to go around. The envelope will have to be a #10 size or the card won't fit in.....

SOME FORETHOUGHTS.....about the N.Y. Comicon in July. What will Jim Steranko wear this year. In 1968 it was a black neru; in '69 a double breasted english cut.....will Roy Thomas hold his usual "seminar" in a corner of the lecture hall, after the festivities are over. They're great !.....will the East Village erotica be left off the walls and registration tables this year. How about it Phil....keep it clean !!

This is a list of the shows I have in my collection at the present time. To those of you who have received other lists from me, the shows on those lists are unavailable. Also, as of now, this is the only list I have out. When I do have my own lists printed, you'll hear about it.

Last time I set up this kind of sell/trade business I got pretty messed up as far as time is concerned. Making special tapes for everyone is a lot more time consuming than you would believe. So, this time, I intend to give you more for your money in both time and service. All shows will be sold by the reel. All reels are 1$00' six hour reels recorded at 3-3/4 i.p.s. One four-track reel is six hours. Recorded half-track, two reels are used for six hours of shows.

All tapes are mailed 4th class unless you pay for anything extra. Insurance is 30¢. If you pay for insurance and the tape(s) is/are lost, I'll replace all losses. I will not, however, replace uninsured packages. All 4th class tapes are sent special handling. This means that they will be sent out with the first class mail. A mail is 80¢ per tape ($1.60 per reel if yours are 1/2 track).

Unless you see a sound rating next to a program, the show is very good or better. I am trying very hard to rate shows accurately and the ratings here are just what I have on the particular show. Unless a show is rated F/P, the show is still listenable.

All tapes are recorded, I do not record on cassette or four or eight track cartridges.

Although I get pretty bad about answering my mail (like, giving no answers at all), I'll answer all letters this time. Those of you that wrote before and didn't receive an answer, if you're still interested in whatever it was you wrote about, write again. I'll answer. An SAE would be appreciated, though.

Also, from now on all tapes will be mailed within one week of the time I get your order. I'll make an effort to get them out within three days.

I'll trade tapes for just about anything. Old comic books (Golden Age and EC), Big Little Books, Big Big Books, radio premiums, pulps (Shadow, Phantom Detective, Weird Tales, Doc Savage), super 8 movies (Laurel & Hardy and Spilt Milk), posters and other stuff. All must be in good shape, though.

I will trade for other shows, but I won't be doing a lot of it. Send your list but don't count on a trade. I want shows very good or better.

Now for the price. The price for one four-track six hour reel is $10.00. That may be a little high but all reels are six hours and all reels are recorded within one week on Scotch tape. I don't send Concert, RM Shamrock or Melody or any of the other cheap tapes other dealers use. They're not worth the trouble (and cause damage to your recorder, too - fact). And doesn't have the quality of Scotch, so you can see where Scotch is worth the extra coin. Two-track reels, since they use twice as much tape, are $5.00 per reel.

Now a listing of the sound ratings and what they stand for:
Very good- Very listenable with no effort needed. Very good may have hiss or slight hum but still very nice. (All shows unrated are vg or better.)
Good- Requires some effort and sound is rougher than very good. May have loud hiss, distortion, hum or other defects. Still listenable, though.
Fair/poor- sometimes can be made out with a supreme effort. Very rough sound.
Sound ratings like vg/g, g/f are in-between qualities that ranges between the two ratings.

THE MORE PEOPLE WHO READ IT, THE MORE RESPONSIVE WE CAN BE TO FANDOM. GOOD LUCK & WE HOPE YOUR CLUB CONTINUES TO GROW BY LEAPS AND BOUNDS.)

DEAR G.B.,
THE SMALLER NUMBER OF PAGES IS THE FIRST THING ONE NOTICES, AND I BOUND IT AN IMPROVEMENT; NOT SO MANY LITTLE ADS TO CHECK (AND GET HEADACHES FROM). I"D RATHER SEE A SMALLER, MORE FREQUENTLY ISSUED RB&CC ANY DAY (EDITOR: WE FEEL MOST FANS CONCUR). AND I KNOW ONE OF THE REASONS YOU WENT TO OFFSET WAS THAT THE MIMEOED ZINE WAS GETTING TO BIG FOR IT"S OWN GOOD. LATELY IT LOOKED AS IF THE SAME THING MIGHT HAPPEN TO THE OFFSET VERSION.
OF COURSE, MORE FREQUENT PUBLICATION WILL REQUIRE FASTER CONTRIBUTIONS. I IMAGINE YOU CAUGHT RAYMOND MILLER AND HOWARD SIEGEL WITH THEIR PANTS DOWN THIS ISSUE, BUT I HOPE THEY CAN CONTRIBUTE EVERY ISSUE. THEIR COLUMNS, ALBO SHORTER BUT MORE FREQUENT, ARE ALWAYS WELCOME READING.
NUMBER 69 WAS NOT DEVOID OF NON-AD MATERIAL, BUT AS ALWAYS IT"S THE SAME SHORT LITTLE NOTHING ARTICLES (EXCEPT IN RAYMOND & HOWARD"S CASES). "EC REVISITED" WAS THE ONLY FEATURE WITH ANY MEAT TO IT, AND EVEN IT WAS PRETTY SHALLOW (EDITOR: COME ON CRAIG, SHALLOW???). THOUGH I SUPPOSE THERE ARE EC COLLECTORS WHO APPRECIATED THE INDEX. "MALICE IN WONDERLAND?" WAS INEVITABLE BUT SAID NOTHING (EDITOR: AGAIN, CRAIG, IT SAID NOTHING???). BERNIE BUBNIS' PAGE WAS FINE AS A FILLER.,BUT IT TOOK ONLY 30 SECONDS TO READ. "COMICS ON THEIR WAY OUT?" WASN"T AN ARTICLE, IT WAS A PEP TALK. AND EXCEPT FOR A FAIRLY INTERESTING LETTER COLUMN THIS TIME, DON NEWTON'S CENTERSPREAD AND "THE SAVAGE EARTH" (GLAD TO SEE THAT MADE IT THIS ISSUE) THAT WAS ALL THE NON-AD MATERIAL. I"M AFRAID I CAN"T OFFER ANY SOLUTION BUT TO KEEP ASKING FOR ARTICLES AS YOU DO EVERY ISSUE. DESPITE MY COMPLAINTSM ALL IN ALL RB&CC SHAPES UP REAL WELL. BRINGING ANDY WARNER ABOARD MAY HAVE BEEN THE SMARTEST MOVE YOU"LL EVER MAKE. (EDITOR: I COULDN"T AGREE MORE. ANDY'S HELP HAS BEEN INVALUABLE. HE IS NOT MY RIGHT HAND MAN, HE IS MY RIGHT HAND). YOU"VE BEEN DOING AN INCREDIBLE JOB, AND ANDY SHOULD BE ABLE TO HELP TURN THE RB&CC INTO A BETTER EVER PRODUCT.

DEAR G.B.,

WOW, ALL I CAN SAY IS THAT THE MAIL JUST CAME POURING IN FROM MY AD IN THE RB&CC #68. DO YOU REALIZE THAT I SOLD OVER 300 COPIES OF MY FANZINE AT $2 EACH AND EVEN THOUGH YOUR NEXT ISSUE IS ALREADY OUT I"M STILL RECEIVING 3 OR 4 ORDERS A DAY! WHO SAYS THE RB&CC DOESN"T GET BETTER RESULTS THAN ANY OTHER MAGAZINE???

MARC FELDMAN
"I'LL BE DAMNED" ED.

(EDITOR: IN REALITY YOU CONFIRM WHAT OTHERS HAVE TOLD US. HERE IS SOMETHING THAT MAY SURPRISE SOME OF YOU. THE PERCENTAGE OF ORDERS AN ADVERTISER CAN GET (FIGURING THE CIRCULATION) FROM AN AD IN THE RB&CC IS FROM 4 TO 8 TIMES (AND SOME TIMES MORE) GREATER THAN THE AVERAGE ADVERTISER GETS FROM AN AD PLACED IN A NATIONAL MAGAZINE OR COMIC. FOR OUR CIRCULATION SIZE, COUPLE WITH THE NUMBER OF ADS PLACED, THE THE RB&CC IS QUITE PROBABLYM ONE OF THE BEST ADVERTISING VEHICLES IN THE WORLD. BUT GETTING BACK TO YOUR SPECIFIC CASE, I AM CONVINCED THAT COMIC FANDOM, AS A WHOLE, IS VERY LOYAL AND WILL SUPPORT JUST ABOUT ANY GOOD HONEST PERSON WHO PUTS OUT A REAL GREAT PROJECT (FANZINES, POSTERS, ETC.). THIS DOES NOT MEAN, HOWEVER, A PERSON CAN PUT OUT JUST ANY OLD ZINE AND EXPECT TO GET 2 OR 300 ORDERS. I MIGHT POINT OUT ANOTHER GOOD EXAMPLE: RICHARD CORBEN'S POSTER AD IN RB&CC #68 BROUGHT HIM ORDERS FOR OVER 200 OF HIS POSTERS.)

Dear G.B.,

I HAVE JUST READ RB&CC #69. I AGREE WITH MR. HAMILTON THAT THERE OUGHT TO BE A "STANDARD OF QUALITY" THAT EVERYONE COULD USE. HOWEVER, I DISAGREE THAT HIS "CLEARING HOUSE OF COMIC TRANSACTIONS" WOULD BE TIME SAVING IN THAT YOU WOULD HAVE TO SEND THE MONEY TO THE HOUSE THE E VERY DAY YOU GET THE NEW RB&CC BECAUSE SOME DEALERS WON"T HOLD COMICS FOR PEOPLE. BUT LOOK AT IT IN ACTUAL TIME. FIRST, YOU WRITE TO THE DEALER, A POSSIBLE TWO DAYS, AND IF HE DOES AGREE TO HOLD THE COMIC OR IF HE DOESN"T, HIS REPLY WILL TAKE ANOTHER TWO DAYS. THEN YOU SEND YOUR OR CHECK TO THE HOUSE, ANOTHER TWO DAYS, THE HOUSE TO THE DEALER--TWO DAYS, THE DEALERS' COMICS BACK TO THE HOUSE--PROBABLY A WEEK, FROM THE HOUSE BACK TO YOU, ANOTHER WEEK. THAT'S THREE WEEKS OR MORE. WHEREAS, IN DIRECT TRADING THE PROCESS TAKES ONLY ABOUT A WEEK AND A HALF.

I"M GLAD THAT ROY THOMAS (FOR THAT MATTER, ANYBODY) STOOD UP FOR MARVEL"S WINNING MOST OF THE ALLEY AWARDS AFTER FRED HEMBECK"S PUTTING THEM DOWN. HERE IN CHATTANOOGA, WE GET THE RB&CC JUST A FEW DAYS BEFORE THE DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE. WHY COME?? (EDITOR: DIDN"T IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU THAT OUR NEW MONTHLY SCHEDULE MIGHT BE THE REASON?? ONE DOES NOT HAVE TO WAIT FOR AN ISSUE TO GET THE DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ONE--IT IS LISTED IN THE PREVIOUS. THAT IS WHT WE LIST OUR DEADLINES TWO ISSUES AHEAD, SO ANEX ADVERTISER WILL ALWAYS KNOW WHAT THE AD DEADLINE IS FOR THE NEXT ISSUE WITHOUT HAVING TO WAIT TO RECEIVE THE CURRENT ONE TO FIND OUT.)

KENNY SCOTT

DEAR G.B.,

AS A CONCERNED FAN & SUBSCRIBER TO RB&CC, ISSUE 69 LEFT ME WITH MIXED EMOTIONS. FIRST OF ALL, THE ABSENCE OF BOTH MR. SIEGEL'S AND MR. MILLER'S COLUMNS SORT OF COUNTERED THE ENTHUSIASM I HAD OVER MR. KLINE'S EXCELLENT COVER AND MR. NEWTON'S ALWAYS EXCELLENT "SAVAGE EARTH" AND CENTERFOLD. (PERHAPS WHEN THE CHAPTERS MOUNT UP TO A RESPECTABLE NUMBER, THE SFCA WILL SEE ITS WAY CLEAR TO ASSEMBLE THEM IN IN A COMIC BOOK SIZE 32 PAGE MAGAZINE FOR A HOPEFULLY MODEST PRICE). (EDITOR: YOU SHOULD BE PLEASED TO HEAR THAT THE ENTIRE 19-PAGE "SAVAGE EARTH" STRIP IS ONE OF THE MANY FEATURES IN THE 2nd FANDOM ANNUAL (NOW AVAILABLE) AND AT $5 IT IS PROBABLY THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN FANDOM) SINCE I"LL PROBABLY NEVER SEE AN EC, MY REACTION TO THE HAUSER CHAPTER & INDEX WAS NOMINAL, AND THE LESS SAID ABOUT THE "ARTICLE" BY BUBNIS THE BETTER. HOWEVER, I BELIEVE BRUCE HAMILTON"S "MALICE IN WONDERLAND" DERSERVES A REGULAR STATUS IN YOUR MAGAZINE AS IT WAS AN EXCELLENTLY WRITTEN ARTICLE WHICH FILLS A DEFINITE NEED IN FANDOM. I FIND THAT ALTHOUGH I ALWAYS STIPULATE THAT THE COMICS I BUY BE UNDAMAGED, COMPLETE AND IN AT LEAST VERY GOOD CONDITION, I MAY RECEIVE ANYTHING--CRAYONED, TORN, COVERS COMPLETELY RIPPED OFF AND SEPARATE, AND--THAT DREADED OF ALL THINGS--MISSING MIDDLE PAGES. ALSO THE CHAIN LETTER HIT ME TWICE AND ENDED UP IN MY WASTE BASKET.

I FEEL THAT PERHAPS GIVING UP THE LARGER PAGE COUNT (140) OF #68 IN ORDER TO GET THE MAG OUT MORE OFTEN, IS A LITTLE TOO LARGE A SACRIFICE. (EDITOR: #69 HAD 80 PAGES, NOT EXACTLY SMALL. HOW MANY OTHER REGULARLY (OR IRREGULARLY) PUBLISHED ZINES HAVE 80 OR MORE PAGES PER ISSUE?????? #70, INCIDENTLY, HAD 100. HOWEVER, YOU SEEM TO FEEL WE "DELIBERATELY" CUT THE PAGE COUNT--NOT SO. WE HAVE VERY LITTLE CONTROL OVER THE SIZE OF AN ISSUE. WE SET ASIDE ABOUT THE SAME AMOUNT OF PAGES IN EVERY ISSUE FOR OUR FEATURES AND SFCA ADS--THE REST DEPENDS ON THE NUMBER OF ADS THAT ARE SENT IN.) ACTUALLY, YOU ARE PROBABLY THE MOST REASONABLY PRICED ZINE OUT (50¢ AN ISSUE FOR 12 ISSUES) AND I COMMEND YOU ON YOUR WORK.

EDITOR: INCIDENTLY MIKE, THE TARZAN STRIP WAS DISCONTINUED BECAUSE THAT WAS ALL OF IT. SORRY I COULDN"T BE PRINT ALL YOUR LETTER BUT REST ASSURE ALL LETTERS OF COMMENT ARE READ BY BOTH ANDY AND MYSELF.

DEAR G.B.,
IT'S AMAZING WHAT A SIMPLE IDEA OF A MAGAZINE DEVOTED TO FANDOM CAN MATURE INTO. OVER 200 TITLES NOW IN PROGRESS; THAT'S A GREAT DEAL FOR ANY FIELD. AND TO TOP THIS OFF, THEY ARE REPRESENTED IN A MAJOR PORTION BY ADS PRESENTED IN THE RB&CC. MY THANKS TO YOU AND YOUR MAGZINE FOR ENABLING THEM TO DO SO. THESE ADS ALLOW YOUR READERS AN OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE FANZINES OF HIGH QUALITY AND, FOR THOSE WHO ARE INCLINED TO DO SO, A PLACE TO ADVERTISE THEIR OWN CREATIONS. THESE "LITERARY MASTERPIECES" ENABLE AMATEURS AS WELL AS THE BLESSEDLY ENDOWED PROS TO OFFER THEIR UNINHIBITED WORK IN ANY WAY THEY CHOOSE. THIS IS INDEED LUCKY FOR US SINCE, I PERSONALLY, FEEL THAT WHEN ANY PERSON IS FORCED TO WORK UNDER A CERTAIN RESTRAINT, HIS WORK IS GOING TO FALTER BECAUSE OF IT. (PLEASE DON'T FEEL THAT I'M ISSUEING ANOTHER CLICHE-FILLED HACK AT THE COMICS CODE, I DO NOT THINK A LOC IS THE APPROPIATE PLACE TO DO SO). THEREFORE A "FREE MEDIA", SUCH AS FANZINES, IS SURE TO RECEIVE WORK OF SUPERIOR QUALITY TO THAT OF REGULAR BOOKS (IF THE SAME AMOUNT OF TIME IS TAKEN). BECAUSE OF THIS I HAVE QUIT BUYING COMICS AND DEVOTE MY MONEY TO THE PURCHASE OF FANZINES; A STEP ~~UP~~ I'M GLAD I TOOK.

DEAR G.B,
IN REGARD TO ROY THOMAS'S LETTER IN RB&CC #69, I WOULD LIKE TO SAY I DISAGREE WITH HIM THE POINT OF JACK KIRBY BEING "KING". HE MAY BE KING OF "THE FANTASTIC FOUR", BUT BESIDES THAT AND "THOR" I CAN'T SAY I HAVE REALLY ENJOYED HIS WORK. I DEFINITELY THINK HE IS NOT THE TOP SUPER-HERO ARTIST OF THE 60'S. I RATHER THINK IT IS SOMEONE BY THE NAME OF CARMINE INFANTINO. COLLECTIVELY HIS WORK HAS BEEN OF MUCH BETTER ~~WORK~~ QUALITY THAN KIRBY'S AND HIS QUALITY HAS ALWAYS BEEN HIGH AS FAR AS THE 60'S GO. KIRBY, ON THE OTHER HAND, HAD POOR QUALITY WORK ON EARLY SUPER-HERO BOOKS OF THE 60's, SUCH AS X-MEN, HULK, THE AVENGERS, ETC. THOUGH HE HAS IMPROVED~~D~~ OVER THE LAST 6 YEARS HE HAS NOT BEEN AS CONSISTENT AS INFANTINO. EVEN THOUGH INFANTINO HAS BEEN OUT OF CIRCULATION FOR OVER A YEAR, HIS EXCELLENCE LINGERS ON.

ACROSS THE GREAT RED PLAINS IT SPREAD. A STRANGE SCARLET MIST CREEPED EVER CLOSER TO THE TERRAN INSTALLATION OF RHEAS ON THE PLANET MARS...
BLECK '70
THE RED MIST IS BACK AGAIN... AND IT'S THICKER THAN EVER! DR. TORGANGEN ISN'T GONNA LIKE THIS ONE BIT!
HE'S OUT THERE NOW... DIGGING FOR ANCIENT ARTIFACTS... RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF IT!
BLAST! IT'S SO DENSE THAT WE'LL HAVE TO POSTPONE OPERATIONS!
THE MIST COMES WITHOUT WARNING... AND THE RE-ACTIVATED ATMOSPHERE OF MARS IS SUCH THAT COULD NOT MAINTAIN SUCH A MIST NATURALLY!
BUT THIS STRANGE PHENOMENON DOES MORE THAN JUST CAUSE DELAYS...
WHA...
...IT CAUSES DEATH!
ARRRGHH
WEEKS LATER... AT TERRA CONTROL... THE SITUATION IS UNDER INVESTIGATION. A SPECIAL TASK FORCE, HEADED BY EX-COLONEL CHRISTOPHER "CRASH" CARTER, IS CALLED INTO PLAY...
YOU WANTED TO SEE ME, GENERAL BLAKE?
CRASH... YES! PACK YOUR CIVILIAN GEAR.. NEW ASSIGNMENT!
YOU ARE AWARE, NO DOUBT, OF THE TROUBLESOME MISTS THAT HAVE BEEN DISRUPTING OUR MINING OPERATIONS ON MARS. NOW IT WAS LED TO THE DEATH OF ONE OF OUR SCIENTISTS. I'M SENDING YOU TO MARS...
PAGE 33

YOU'LL ACCOMPANY PROF. CRAIGSON AND HIS ASSISTANT TO DETERMINE THE CAUSE OF THIS HAZE.
HOLD ON, CRASH!
NOW LISTEN, BLAKE! THE STARMASTERS ARE NOT NURSE-MAIDS TO MAD SCIENTISTS!
THE STARMASTERS ARE VALUABLE IN THIS CASE AS UNDERCOVER AGENTS IN A PLACE WHERE WE CAN'T SEND THE MILITIA!
THEN THIS MIST IS DUE TO OTHER THAN NATURAL CAUSES?
LOOKS THAT WAY! IN FACT... IT COULD BE DELIBERATE SABOTAGE!
TERRA CONTROL EXPECTS THE STAR-MASTERS TO CLEAR THIS MESS UP AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE... WITHOUT POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS. EMPLOY A GREAT DEAL OF TACT. READ ME, CARTER... TACT!
LATER, CARTER, JOINED BY JANN NORTH AND BAT BRONSON, REPORTS TO PROFESSOR CRAIGSON'S BIOLOGICAL MENAGERIE IN THEIR UNDERCOVER GUISE...
GET READY TO GO INTO YOUR ACT, MISS "LE MANS." HERE COMES THE PROF.
I'M "MARK RYDER," PROF. AND THIS, OF COURSE, IS LEAH LE MANS, OUR NEW STARLET AT GALAXY INTERSTELLAR PRODUCTIONS WHO IS FINANCING YOUR PROJECT!
YES, AND IT'S A SORRY DAY WHEN THE CAUSE OF SCIENCE IS FORCED TO RELY ON A CHEAP PUBLICITY STUNT!
BUT...
WHAT KIND OF NUT IS THIS CRAIGSON? HE MUST HAVE A STUFFED VERSION OF EVERY BIRD IN THE GALAXY!
NOT JUST BIRDS, BAT. IT TOOK QUITE A MAN TO BRING BACK THIS CAVE APE FROM DAKOR 7!
STOW THE WISE CRACKS, BOYS! DIDN'T OUR ORDERS SAY SOMETHING ABOUT TACT?
AS PUBLICITY MANAGER FOR THE STUDIO, IT'S MY JOB TO PUT MISS LE MANS IN THE NEWS. WE'LL STAY OUT OF YOUR WAY!
SEE THAT YOU DO! I WANT TO CONDUCT THIS INVESTIGATION IN MY OWN MANNER...
THAT'S WHY I ACCEPTED YOUR STUDIO'S OFFER AND NOT THE GOVERNMENT'S!
GEAR IS STOWED AND CRAIGSON'S CRAFT BLASTS OFF FOR MARS BASE RHEAS... AND THE MISTS!
IT LOOKS LIKE WE'LL HAVE A CLEAR FIELD ON MARS, BAT. CRAIGSON DOESN'T WANT US IN HIS HAIR ANY MORE THAN WE WANT HIM IN OURS!
STILL, I WOULDN'T MIND HAVING DIANN, HIS ASSISTANT, IN MY HAIR!
LANDING OCCURS DURING A FABULOUS MARTIAN SUNSET...
THE MISTS HAVE ALREADY STARTED, PROF!
YES, DIANN! WE MUST ASSEMBLE THE APPARATUS QUICKLY!
next: LOST IN THE MISTS!

FUNNYWORLD

FUNNYWORLD began life in 1966 as a mimeographed contribution to CAPA-alpha, an amateur press association made up of comics and animated-cartoon fans. The twelfth issue is being published this spring, and there have been a lot of changes.

FUNNYWORLD No. 12 will contain forty-eight pages -- photo-offset and professionally typeset, with color covers by George Metzger, and plenty of photos and drawings inside. The main attraction is an interview with Bob Clampett, the creator of Beany and Cecil and a cartoon director for Warner Brothers from 1936 to 1946. While at Warner's, he originated Porky Pig and Tweety, among other characters, and had a large hand in the creation of Bugs Bunny. It's all in the interview-more than twenty pages of it, the product of a six-hour taping session in Hollywood last summer. In the interview, Bob Clampett reminisces about Leon Schlesinger, Walt Disney, Chuck Jones, Frank Tashlin, Tex Avery, Friz Freleng, Bobe Cannon, and other important figures in animation. He fills in heretofore blank chapters in animation history. The interview is fully illustrated with rare photos and drawings from Bob Clampett's own files.

Future issues of FUNNYWORLD will contain more interviews--with Chuck Jones, Carl Stalling, Mel Blanc and Ward Kimball, among others.

Also in No. 12 is the fifth installment of the Carl Barks bibliography. The bibliography--prepared with Carl Barks' fullest consent and cooperation--lists in detail all of Carl Barks' comic-book work, and also related items--Big Little Books, articles about Barks, and so on. The bibliography entries list the full title and page count of each story, a synopsis of each story, notes on any unusual aspects of the story--and, often, Carl Barks' own comments on the story. When all seven installments of the bibliography have been published in FUNNYWORLD, and all errors and omissions have been corrected, the complete bibliography will be published in a separate volume that will also include "The Lord of Quackly Hall" (Mike Barrier's COMIC ART article on Barks) and a wealth of other material. This book will be the complete guide to the work of Carl Barks, and when it's published, you'll hear about it first in FUNNYWORLD.

In addition there is, in FUNNYWORLD, continuing and detailed coverage of Robert Crumb and the other underground cartoonists; essay-reviews on what's most interesting in current comics and animation; letters from a variety of fans and pros; a question-and-answer column, and spot illustrations by Jay Kinney, Jim Jones, and George Metzger.

FUNNYWORLD should be of interest to everyone who cares for what is valuable and enduring in comic art. Single copies are $1.00; a four-issue subscription costs $3.50. To have FUNNYWORLD sent by first-class mail, add twenty-five cents per copy; by air mail, add fifty cents per copy.

Neil Glossop asks:
1. What does the number near the spine on the front cover of DC's comics mean, like the cover of Unexpected #115 which has B327? This must be a code number for the various editors. The letter before the numbers is for the editor and in this case the B is for Boltinoff.
2. What issues, published by Dell, featured Flash Gordon and Green Hornet? I know Green Hornet is in #496 and FG in 84, 190, 204, 247 and 424.
That was the only Hornet Dell issue. Flash was also in #10, 173, 512, #2.
3. What were the main features in King Comics? Were these original or reprints?
These were reprints of Sunday newspaper strips. As for the lead strips Dick Hoffman says #79 - 155 had Blondie, 1 - 111 had Brick Bradford, 50 - 145 had The Lone Ranger, 1 - 146 had Mandrake as did 156 - 159, The Phantom was in 61 - 146 and 156 - 158 and Flash Gordon was in 1 - 155. Prince Valiant was in #146. (Also in Ace 26 - 134. Tarzan appeared in Sparkler and Tip Top, not in King.)
4. I have a copy of Fawcett's Unknown World #1 June 1952. How many issues were there? Also how many issues of Terror Tales and World's of Fear?
DOES ANYONE KNOW?

Manuel L Seguin asks:
1. How many issues of Fawcett's Mary Marvel Comics were published? I had understood there were only 25 issues but I have issues # 26 and 28?
According to The Collectors Guide she was only in 1-25 but I've had a feeling for a long time that there were at least 28 issues and now you have proved it. I always figured that Fawcett's Monte Hale Western, which started with #29 was originally Mary Marvel but I could never account for #26-28.
2. How many issues of Fawcett's Master Comics were published?
There were 133 issues.
3. I have issue #3 of Ken Shannon Private Detective published by Quality Comics for Feb. 1952. I would like to know what comic he first appeared in before he got his own book? How many issues was he in?
Ken Shannon first appeared in Police Comics, I beleive #103 was the first issue. (Plastic Man was last in 102). #103 would be about Nov. 1950. Police ran to at least #126 and I think Shannon was in all of those.
4. What issue of Famous Funnies did the strip "Big Chief Wahoo" (Steve Roper) first appear in? #49 MARCH 1938 WAS IT.

Louis Graham wants to know:
1. In several "Strange Worlds" that I have seen, there is an artist called Everett Raymond Kinsler. Could you give me some info on him, such as where else he appeared and if he is currently doing anything?
I think Kinsler has done some recent paperback covers. Can anyone say for sure what he is doing? Kinsler did quite a bit of art. for Avon in the fifties. He did the cover and some stories in their White Princess of the Jungle #3. He did Hawkman in Flash #87 and 89. Who can add to that?
2. Why was there no EErie #1 (Warren)?
Eerie #1 was to go on sell Dec.28 1965, but during the summer of 1965, it became necessary to take legal steps to protect th. rights to the title so they had to hurry up and put together a digest sized #1, using some backlog material and it was published nationally and sold throughout the country in various selected cities and this secured their right to the title. Thus #2 became the collectors item.
3. Here is one for you Disney fans. Louis wants to know if Disney ever made a cartoon movie entitled "The Snow Queen"? If so, in what year was it made?

Martin Schiel has some Tomahawk questions.
1. How Many Tomahawks have been published to date and is it still running?
So far, as of this writing, there has been 128 issues of Tomahawk and it is still running.
2. Was there a Tomahawk #1 or did it just take over when some other DC title folded?
Tomahawk started with #1. Tomahawk was also in Star Spangled 69 - 130 (was cover featured on 96-121) and World's Finest 33-35, 65-88 and 99-101.
3. Which artists drew Tomahawk while he had his own mag , especially around #80?
I can't say, but Frank Thorne and Fred Ray have done much of the art.
4. Who are the writers?
George Kashdan and Bob Kanigher are two.

Jeff Anderson says the oldest Steve Ditko story he has is in Charlton's Crime and Justice #18 April-May 1954 which is titled "Killer on the Loose". He did have Witchcraft #1, a 1952 Avon title with a cover by Wood and lead story by Ditko. Jeff is also quite sure Ditko did a 4 page story in DC's Real Life #51 for Jan. 1950.

Lars Erickson wants to know:

1. Could you tell me which issues of Green Lantern Gil Kanes artwork appeared in?
   See the begining of this column.
2. Do you know if there were anyother issues of Charlton's Mysterious Traveler besides #10?
   Yes there were. I've seen both #1 and #4 for sale.
3. Would it be possible to have a complete Mystery in Space artwork checklist in RB-CC in the near future?
   I'm affraid not. From now on no more check lists on any title that has ran over 10 issues. It's to time consuming.
4. Which issues of Tarzan and Korak did Russ Manning draw?
   I don't know about Korak, but Manning did Tarzan in #154-178 except the TV issues 165,168-171. He also did most Brothers of the Spear stories from #25-156.

Note: When asking questions please try and refrain from asking questions about Charlton's war or horror mags as I can find no data on them. Also try to enclose at least 3 questions so you will be sure to get at least one answered. Also from now on questions such as "How long did the following titles last", well every two titles ask will count as one question.

Craig Henderson asks:

1. How many issues did these titles run? Mighty Crusaders, Spyman, Jigsaw, B-Man, Jack Q-Frost, Ghost Rider (Marvel).
   This is what I want readers to stay away from unless it refers to Golden Age comics.
   There were 5 issues of Mighty Crusaders, 3 of Spyman, 3 of Jigsaw, 2 each of B-Man and Jack Q.Frost and 6 of Ghost Rider.
2. How many issues of Superman, Superboy, Jimmy Olsen and Lois Lane annuals were there before the 80 page giant series?
   There were 8 Superman (1-8),one Superboy, 2 Lois Lane and no Jimmy Olsen.
3. How many actual issues of 80 page Giants were there before the numbering became part of the regularly issued title?
   There were 15 issues. #16 was the first (Jla #39)
4. What issue was the first DC Blackhawk?
   #108

Scott Gibson wants to know:

1. In what comic did Wonder Woman first appear? She was older then both Superman and Batman wasn't she?
   Hardly! WW didn't come into being till late 1941. Her origin was told in All Star #8 Dec-Jan '41-2 and was not part of the JSA story. Her own series began in Sensation #1 Jan 1942.
2. Does DC have any plans for putting any of these characters back in their own strips? Elongated Man, Atom, Spectre, Black Canary, Secret Six or Hawkman?
   No. I'm afraid those days all gone for good.

Christopher Martersteck asks:

1. Which issues of GK's Tarzan and Korak were done by Russ Manning?
   I don't know about Korak but see preceding page for Tarzan info.
2. Is there a Showcase and a Brave and the Bold Check lists?
   Yes there is. Write to John and Tom McGeehan 405 E. 5th St. Santa Ana, Calif. 92701.
3. To your last question..No Russ Manning is doing no work in the comic book field at present.

Alan Braum asks the type of questions that I ask you readers to refrain from asking anymore. If I have to do research to make checklists I will be forced to drop Info Center and that I don't want to do.

1. Could you give me a checklist of all the Warren mags and list the name of each story, the artist, and who did the cover.
   As I said Alan, I can't but will do this for you. List the best artists from Creepy 1-17 and Eerie 2-12 which are the only issues I have. Also for Blazing Combat 2-4.

3. Could you give me a list of all the Conan covers Frazetta did?

Paul Dushkind wants to know:

1. Is the Frank Robbins who draws "Johnny Hazard" the same Robbins who writes for DC?
   Yes he is.
2. Why does Pete Morisi (Pam) find it necessary to remain anonymous concerning his Charlton work? How is it that you and I know his real name?
   Guess that is Morisi's business but don't think it is a secret now. Don't know about you but I knew his work by what he did earlier when he signed his full name.
3. Where can I get a complete EC checklist?
   From Wade M. Brothers, Books P.O Box 1111 Los Alamos N.M. 87544 $5.00 plus 25¢ postage.

Gary Fairfax has these questions:

1. Can you please tell me what is meany by a comic in poor, fair, good, very good, fine, very fine, about mint and mint?
   Poor condition about says it. Fair is one that is readable and in most cases repairable. Good condition is a comic that is complete and worn from nomal use over the years. Very good is a clean book nice covers, maybe loose at the spine but little else wrong. I think Good and Very Good conditioned books are the backbone of most collectors who don't demand just mint copies. Fine, very fine, near mint and mint refers to comics as good or better then the ones you by right of the stands. But what is good for one person may be very good to another and vice-virsa (if you can spell). There are some dealers who will call a brittle comic very good or even fine if it is clean and no tears. To me a brittle comic, no matter what the condition, should be called poor.
2. Could you tell me what is the best way (ie,cheapest way) of getting some original artwork by Neil Adams?
   You could try to write to him or his publisher but I doubt if it would get you any. RB-CC is your best bet.
3. Are coverless comics worth anything at all to collectors?
   Sure they are. Doubt if any pre 1944 coverless title would sell for less then $3, more depending on the title.
4. Which Superman comic first introduced Bizarro and what is it worth?
   It was Action 254 for the first adult Bizarro. The first one was in Superboy #68. Price wise...50¢ to 75¢.

In issue #67 Jim W. Higgs asked for a printing history of all John Carter of Mars comic books. Don Wood comes to the rescue. John Carter was in The Funnies #30 - 56. It was the first for John Coleman Burroughs art. Also in Dells Fast Action Story, John Carter of Mars (Feb.-Mar. 1940). Then in John Carter Better Little Book (Whitman #1402). Then there were a total of 69 Sunday strips. Next came 3 Dell comics #375, 437 and 488, all by Jesse Marsh. Carter also appeared in British Sun Weekly as The Martian in 1958-59. His last appearance was in GK #1,2,3 which were reprints of Dell 375, 488 and 437 in that order. Funnies 34-56 and the Fast Action and BLB all contained Burroughs art.

A.John Quia wants to know:

1. Will Warren and Co. continue to reprint in Creepy and Eerie?
   Now that Warren is back on their feet, no more reprints.
2. Which DC mags contained the Wonderful World of Comics 3,4,9 and Fact File #3?
   I don't think Fact File #3 ever appeared. Anyone know the answer to the rest of the question?
3. I've heard that a hardcover book of EC's art is to be published. Do you have any info on this?
   No I don't. Does anyone else?

Michael S. Halpin asks: My question is when did exactly Timely leave off and Marvel start or was there overlapping? Was Fantastic Four #1 Marvel or Timely.
This is kinda a long story but to make a long story short...Timely lasted from about 1939 thru 1942 and unlike most publishers the name never appeared on any of their titles except for a few months in 1942. Like today their titles were published under a number of names like Timely Comics Inc.,U.S.A. Comic Magazines Inc,Complete, Daring etc. By 1944 there were even more like Snap, Buclid etc and by 1945-

1946 the word Marvel was slowly coming into being and the Marvel emblem would soon be appearing on their titles and remain that way into the 50's when a complete change over to Atlas would occur for the rest of the 50's. Atlas collapsed with the end of the 50's and only a hand full of titles, like Two-Gun Kid, Millie etc survived. When FF#1 came on the scene in 1961 there was no Marvel as we know it today. FF #14 May 1963 was the first issue to have the words "Marvel Comics Group" on the cover although 1-13 did have the small letters M c on the covers. Timely was still listed as the publisher of Marvel Mystery as late as 1945. I far as I know the Timely emblem appeared only between May and Aug 1942 issues.

Al Oestreich has some answers:
Regarding comic book super heroes who have appeared in newspaper strips. I remember seeing a Robin strip in the Buffalo (NY) Evening News sometime in 1946-47. Also don't forget the Spirit and the Phantom. (I don't think the latter two count Al since they originated in the newspaper first.)
Ditko did Aunt May and Uncle Henry in one of the last prehero Strange Tales around #98. This I beleive precedes Spidey.
And a question: In which issues of Airboy did the Heap appear?
In the Skywolf story in Air Fighters Vol.1#3, V.2#10 and Airboy V.3 #4 and in his own strip in Airboy V.3#9 - V.5#1, V.6#6-V.7#8, Vol.7 #10 - V.10#4.

Readers I just had a short note from Mr. Arnold Meyrowitz who says he would like to make amends for what he has done to his fellow collectors and wants to inform fandom that he will start returning money and comics some time in early May. I hope MR. Meyrowitz is on the up and up and does what he promised,so if you readers who have been cheated by him receive your money or comics back, please let me know.

William Harrison asks:

1. When and where did Red Mask appear and who drew him and Presto Kid?
   Red Mask appeared in Tim Holt Comics. Tim was playing Red Mask as early as #25 and the book was called Red Mask from #42 thru 54. Artist was Frank Bolle. The Presto Kid was in 50-54 by Dick Ayers.
2. When and in what book did DC print Dr. No?
   Showcase #43 April 1963.
3. Does DC or Marvel have the rights to Dr. Fu Manchu?
   I din't know if either does. DC used Fu Manshu in Detective before #28.

Add these to George Detrow's Capt. Future list...
Galaxy Mission #60 - 2137, The Magician of Mars #60 - 2450 and a short story The Harpers of Titan (32 pages) in Henry Kuttner's Dr. Cyclops #445 - 02485 - 060, all from Popular Library.

Tedd Kessler wants to know what happened to George Reeves and Bob Kane?
I don't know about Kane but Reeves is dead. Despondent over his career, he shot himself. Type cast as Superman he could get no rolls.

From Richard O'Brien: Re: Robert Paul (68). Your coverless Crash Comics is #1, May 1940. There were 5 issues. #5 was Nov.1940.

R.E.Emmerson wants data on Master Man (Master 1-6). Who was he? What were his powers and why was he discontinued? Who can help?

YOUR COMIC WHOLESALER

PRICE CHANGES
NEW WHOLESALE DEALS
EFFECTIVE DATE:
MAY 1, 1970

R. J. BANKS, P. O. BOX B, CORSICANA, TEXAS 75110

THANKS ONCE AGAIN for your fine response to both my wholesale & retail listings. Also thanks to all customers who patiently endured the delays during my extended bout with Hong Kong flu early this year.

WHOLESALE (Please add $2 for postage/handling/insurance on all orders totalling under $20. Over that I pay such costs. AND if you order $50 worth or more, you may discount 10%.)

1. MARVEL & DC super-hero comics only,1967-70 issues. About 2/3 will be 1968 and 1969 issues, and all orders will include as many 1967 as 1970 dates. Balanced proportions from each publisher. My choice only $11 per 100. OR $6 for 50.
2. Other publishers' all types subject matter, but emphasizing superhero types, as stock permits. Also this will include some Marvel and/or DC, but none of their superheroes. 1967-70 issues, about 2/3 will be 1968 and 1969 issues, and all orders will includ as many 1967 as 1970 dates. My choice only $6 per 100. OR $3.50 for 50.
3. All publishers' damaged/faulty/imperfect reg. 12¢ size comics (including some Marvel & DC superheroes and other types); all types subject matter, but emphasizing superheroes, as stock permits. All have covers & most have only minor imperfections; none knowingly sold with pgs. missing. 1967-70 (a few earlier sent to those who order soonest) My choice only $5.50 per 100. OR $2.75 for 50.

My stock of larger size annuals/giants is too small at present, and these are so hard to find in collectable quantities and qualities, to continue offering these. However, such damaged/faulty/imperfect copies of these larger comics as I have will be included (a few with each order, while they last) as free bonuses when you buy from one of the three categories above. Watch my future ads for resumption of offerings on these comics.

NOTE to European wholesale customers; Please include $3.50 per 100 for postage, etc. And quantity discounts do not apply on overseas sales.

Thanks also to all who responded to my WANT LIST in RB-CC #67. My wants continue and prices offered remain the same. Please see that advertisement for full details.

Also, I am no longer offering LOOK, LIFE, S.E. POST or TV GUIDES. Still have a good many of the Movie/TV mags with articles (mostly on the stars' love lives) tied in to such current/recent items of interest as J. Bond, U.N.C.L.E., I SPY, Mission Impossible, Star Trek, Dark Shadows, etc. These are 50¢ each; let me know your wants.

Special number 7

THE END OF AN ERA

THIS IS THE ONE ALL OF YOU E.C. FAN-ANTICS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR

William Parente (professional writer and editor) takes an indepth look at the old E.C. line. He explores and discusses it's faults and weaknesses, but more importantly, he tells why E.C. has never been matched for pure quality. Along with Bill's fine feature-length article, R.B. SPECIAL #7 contains reproductions of E.C. art by Wally Wood, Joe Orlando, Roy Krenkel, Jack Davis, and Al Williamson. Plus a photo of Wally Wood. To top it off, we managed to have pro artist John Fantucchio draw a beautiful 7-color front cover for this issue and believe me, it is in the TRUE EC tradition. And the back cover, also in full color, is by Buddy Saunders, one of fandom's best.

For each copy of THE ROCKET'S BLAST SPECAIL #7 you want, send 75¢ to:

FT COMICS

BY RICK WEINGROFF

Do you think $2.50 is too much for a fanzine ?? Well, read on and we'll change your mind. Aside from the articles listed at the left, here are some more in FANDOM ANNUAL #1: "Hall Of Infamy" by L.L. Simpson, "The Nedor Comics Group" by Marty Arbunich, "Supersnipe" by Tom Fagan, "Pocket Size Comics" by Raymond Miller, and these are all full length artcles written by fandom's best and all are fully illustrated, many with actual scenes from the strips themselves. But that's not all. Cover repros: Over 25 !! Three "Hall Of Fame" Pin-ups by Biljo White, "Scenes From The Golden Age" featuring Rocket Man and Rocket Girl, A capsule History of WEIRD SCIENCE by Bill Spicer, plus several other features, including, "Pour For The Price", "Comics Collector," "A Comeback For Comic Books," And this is all topped off by beautiful full color front and back covers by John Fantucchio and Buddy Saunders(one of Buddy's best pieces of art ever). This fanzine (with wrap around binding) is printed on heavy 80 pound paper with the covers on extra heavy 120 pound slick paper. It was made to last a life-time.
The original price was $2.25 but because we only have a limited quantity left, the price is now $2.50. And if you still think that's too much, just ask some one who owns a copy. When the copies we have are gone, there will DEFFINITELY by no more printed up. Hopefully, we will put out a second issue sometime in the future, but once these copies of #1 are gone, that is it. So don't wait, thinking w you can always order a copy when you want it, because one of these days they will be gone.

Send $2.50 for each copy you want to:

THE S.F.C.A.

This issue has been called by many, the finest single comic fanzine ever publish !!!

PLAYBOY MAGAZINE SALE

.75 PER COPY

1965 - 1966 - 1967 - 1968 -1969 ANY MONTH ONLY .75 EACH

1964 AND 1970 ARE ONLY $1.00 PER MONTH

ALL OF THE PLAYBOY MAGAZINES THAT I SELL HAVE THE ORIGINAL CENTER PLATE, BOTH COVERS, NO TEARS INSIDE OR OUT. IN OTHER WORDS I DO NOT SELL JUNK.

THESE MAGAZINES ARE SOLD WITH THE SAME UNDERSTANDING THAT I USE WITH MY COMICS. AND THAT IS YOU MAY INSPECT THEM FOR SEVEN (7) DAYS AND THEN RETURN THEM TO ME FOR FULL REFUND OF YOUR MONEY. YOU NEED NOT EVEN GIVE A REASON FOR RETURNING THEM. I WOULD LIKE TO KNOW IF A PAGE WAS OUT OR SOMETHING OF THE SAME NATURE SO THAT I WOULDN'T BY MISTAKE SHIP THE BOOK TO SOMEONE ELSE. I HAVE AT LEAST 10 OF MOST MONTHS AND UP TO 25 OF SOME, SO THIS PORTION OF THE AD WILL BE GOOD TO ORDER FROM UNTILL JULY 31, 1970.

OLD PIN-UP MAGAZINES

THESE MAGAZINES HAVE NEVER BEEN OPENED SO THEY ARE AS MINT AS ANY YOU HAVE EVER SEEN. I ONLY HAVE ONE COPY OF EACH THAT I HAVE LISTED. THESE ARE SOLD ON THE SAME BASIS AS THE PLAYBOYS. RETURN IF NOT SATISFIED. THEY ALL HAVE FROM 40 TO 60 PAGES WITH THE SAME GENERAL DIMENSIONS AS PLAYBOY.

SEND YOUR SUPPORT!

We had hoped that as a result of our ad in RBCC 69, that we would get very good response from all fans. Unfortunately, this has not been the case. To those who have shown their support, we say a humble thanks. To anyone else out there who has not yet ordered the fanzine, it would be proper if we explained our aims.

STYX is a collaboration of 15 interested comics and science fiction fans who feel that fandom deserves a high-quality, low-cost genzine. Make no mistake, it is not wholly comics or science fiction, but contains fiction, poetry, cartoons, comics, books, and general faanish graffitti.

The publishing is a team job run between myself and one Andris Taskans, another prominent Winnipeg fan. Because of the great cost of the cardstock covers and high-quality paper, together with the large amount of photo offset work, we are asking for advance orders. This is to help foot the bill which is unattainable between the two of us. We had originally planned release for early May, but because of technical difficulties and lack of support, this has been held up until early July. By July 10, all supporters will either have a copy or will have their money returned. So help support a worthwhile cause. And just to show you what we offer, here is a careful run-down of the highlights of the first progression of STYX:

* Reproductions of about 60 E.C. covers, endorsed by Bill Gaines.
* A nostalgic look at St. Loulsoon in photos * Progressive fiction
* Full-page Frazetta cover reproductions * Comprehensive articles on the works of Ballard and Stapledon * A folio of creative poetry
* Humorous prose by W.C. Bliss * Unnerving horror by Chester Cuthbert
* Over 20 miscellaneous cartoons and other pieces of art such as the three examples reproduced in miniature here * Beautiful front and back covers by Steve Riley and Fred Cashor

In addition to this you get over 50 8½ x 11 pages, together with uncluttered eye-pleasing layout.

And the price of one single copy?

50¢

Payable to:

Joseph Krolik
490 Cordova St.
Winnipeg 9,
Manitoba
CANADA

(NOTE: If you send a cheque, please include 25¢ extra cashing fee.)

The comics listed here are what's left from my last ad, plus the material I listed on my last supplementary list. This is positively my last stock left. You will notice that the prices have been slashed, and I believe that they may be the lowest in this entire issue of Rocket's Blast.

If no condition is listed directly next to a comic in parentheses (), then that comic is near mint to mint. Otherwise, the condition is as listed. I use a very simple condition code: VG--very good; G--good; F--fair; P-poor. Full payment in U.S. funds must accompany all orders. Please add 75¢ to your order to cover postage and handling. IF YOU SEND ANY KIND OF CHEQUE, THEN YOU MUST INCLUDE 2.5¢ CASHING FEE, the only reason for this being that the bank charges me this to cash any Canadian cheques. All prices refer to separate issues.

I want to thank everyone who ordered last time, and hope you find something you like at a price that's right. And don't forget STFX, either!

ANSWER: Charging prices people will pay.

It's enough to make you sick.

SUPERBOY #1-10

1-9 all NM-M. One issue has some small printing in the margin of an inside page unaffecting the art. Number 10 is in very good condition. After looking at this set one of the largest dealers on the West Coast recently offered me $55 for it, so you can imagine the terrific condition these comics are in! If a serious collector wants it for $85, it's his. I won't bust the set.

APOLLO EXPLOSION!

For nearly four consecutive days the world held its breath as the Apollo 13 Astronauts met the challenge of man's first face-to-face battle with the hostility of outer space. I have a minute-by-minute 24-hour-a-day report of this great adventure that may be the only copy in existence. With considerable difficulty I was able to obtain every bulletin, countdown, story, headline, advisory, re-write and related story that cleared the United Press International newswire —day and night— from the very moment of the last "A-OK" followed by the sudden break of the news that there had been an explosion aboard ship... right on through to splashdown and recovery in the Pacific. This is a fantastic document, because it's not a record of what happened, but a record of what is happening, or what they thought was happening, or what they thought might be happening. I have only one copy and know of no one else who does. Frankly, in fifteen years in radio I've never known anyone anywhere to have kept a complete chronicle such as this. It most cases, it isn't possible. Naturally, I have only one copy, since this is the original newswire copy and not a reprint. As this goes to press, I'm in the process of carefully editing these items together, each bf which has the date, hour and exact minute it came over the wire. When this is accomplished, I will have the whole record bound. This is what I'm accepting bids on through June 30. I will let all bidders know at that time whether or not I've decided to accept the highest. This is an item that could easily be worth hundreds of dollars someday. There is no minimum bid, so let me hear from you if you're interested in this classic!

WESTERN PULPS

TV has bought all the Western pulps in Los Angeles just to steal the stories and collectors are up the creek! If you have any of the four following, contact me. I want them worse than you do:

April 25, 1923
October 25, 1923, V. CV, #2

EVERYBODY'S
July, 1923, V. XLIX, #1

Would also like the July, 1915 EVERYBODY'S if the price isn't too high. ALSO ... Street and Smith began the WILD WEST WEEKLY in 1929. I'll buy any issue 1929-1934 that contains a story by Carlysle Graham Raht, Franklin Cry or Tex Grahan and there were dozens! HELP! HELP!

Armageddon

is nigh!

Ever wondered what a British Fanzine would look like? No...? Well, we're giving you the chance to find out anyway. ARMAGEDDON is Britain's No.1 litho comic art, discussion and article magazine. In the current micro-typed issue, for example, there is:

'There was a time...when Terror reigned.' Did the Nedor group deserve it's fate?

Full page art by the original innovator of the graphic story, Bob Kane

Green Lantern the longest and most detailed character study of the four faces of G.L. ever presented in fandom, delving into the full psychological implications behind the feature, including a complete history from 1940 onwards, by Britain's No. 1 Fanwriter. Peter C. Phillips

A complete, unabridged biography, concerning the life, times and works of - - - - - - - - - Reed Crandall

STRIPPING the LEVELS' - a biting look at Allegory in comics by - - - - - - - - - - Ges Cleaver

'SPECTRUM'
'ANSWER DESK'

And lots of other equally intriguingly titled stuff, including a stencilled supplement of the doings of British fandom. The price per issue is indicated left, but if you want to go mad, a three-issue subscription is $1.25 mailed flat in envelopes, as all copies of 'ARI' are. Top quality layout and professional British artwork by John Hudson, Ken Simpson and others. Morgan

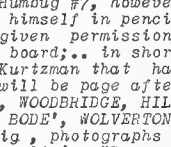
SQUA TRONT?
MY GOD! THEY WANT $5.00!
H. Kurtz-ic

April 3, 1970

Dear Fandom:

This letter is to serve notice that between June 20th and the 1st of August SQUA TRONT #4 will be published. The fourth and final issue will contain our long & hard sought after dream of unpublished E.C. artwork and double the weight of everything that appeared in #3. There will be four color process covers, paintings, by Vaughn Bode', Harvey Kurtzman, Kenneth Smith, and Graham Ingels (the famed oil , that hangs in Bill Gaines office). The features inside include two unpublished E.C. classics from the 3-D SF comic book that was never published: "Slave Ship" by BENARD KRIGSTEIN, and "Astroid" by REED CRANDALL. The lead article "Kurtzman", reveals Harvey's working methods in creating a comic strip. Jerry DeFuccio (of MAD), who worked with Harv in the old days has written a special introduction; E.C. has given permission to reprint unpublished story-board work that Harvey did for the old MAD and TWO-FISTED TALES; Kurtzman has given permission to reprint "FRANKENSTEIN" from Humbug #7, however this is the advance story-board that Harvey did himself in pencil and ink; Hugh Hefner and PLAYBOY Magazine have given permission for us to reprint an unpublished ANNIE FANNY story board;.. in short this article will contain as much artwork by Mr. Kurtzman that has been seen since Ballantines JUNGLE BOOK. There will be page after page of unpublished artwork by WILLIAMSON, EVANS, WOODBRIDGE, HILL METCALF, WRIGHTSON, TORRES, KRENKEL, CRAIG, SMITH, BODE', WOLVERTON, and KLINE. An in depth interview with Johnny Craig , photographs & illustrations included. The continuance of Nick Meglin's "Days of Wine and Flegales". An article on the Foreign Edition E.C.'s with the reprinting of the E.C. Bulletins, plus the usual features. Our planned print run is 1,500 and these will go quickly, orders are advised to take place in the next few months. Issue #4 will sell for $5.00 per copy - mailing address - 1849 S. 127 St. E., Wichita Kan. 67207. Ironically this issue, because of the lack of money to get a larger print run, will most likely turn out to be rarer than our first issue - so if you don't believe its worth $5.00, sit back and pay $10.00 two years from now.

Best,



Plan NOW to attend,

The 1970 Metro Comic Art Convention

OUR PROGRESS:

The Virginia - Maryland Metro Comic Art Organization is holding its first annual comic convention August 22nd and 23rd of this year. The vital facts and our line - up of professional Guests of Honor are all listed on the remainder of this and the following page. Read this advertisement and see what we have to offer YOU. We think it's enough to make ANY comic fan enthusiastic - enthusiastic enough to come and join in on the fun; the panel discussions and meeting your favorite pro's. Buying those old comics that will fill the gaps in your collection and to have one of the most unforgettable times ever!

Regular Membership (Admission Fee) is $6.00 for both day's in advance by mail; or $7.00 at the door. This includes the entrance fee into the convention, the Progress Report (out June 22nd), The Program Book and one large halftoned print of a beautiful pencil illustration specially rendered for the 1970 METRO COMIC - ART CONVENTION by Sal Buscema! Supporting Membership is $1.00. Supporting members will receive the Progress Report and Program by mail; (the BUSCEMA illustration is available to non-attending members for an additional 75¢.) Supporting Membership may be converted to Attending Membership at the door for an additional $5.00.

LUNCHEON:

Although it is only tentative at this time, Neal Adams is planned to be the BANQUET LUNCHEON GUEST OF HONOR! Neal has expressed a great desire to come down and attend the convention, and if it is at all possible and can be worked into his busy schedule, Neal WILL be down. If he makes it down, Neal will give a lively talk at the Banquet Luncheon, followed by a long question and answer period. The Special Banquet Luncheon will take place at 1:00 PM on Sunday, August 23rd. The actual cost of the Banquet Luncheon per person is still being finalized; it is estimated to be in the neighborhood of four or five dollars. The actual cost will be printed in the Progress Report, due out June 22nd.

SAL BUSCEMA

Please remember that there is the chance that Neal won't be able to make it down. If not, another Banquet Luncheon Guest of Honor will be chosen.

APOLOGIES TO DETROIT!

The entire staff of the 1970 Metro Comic Art Convention wishes to express its regrets, and offer its apologies to JIM STERANKO and the staff of the Detroit Triple Fan Fair for the prematured publicity given Jim Steranko's appearance at our METROCOMICON. Steranko had not actually committed himself to appear in Virginia, though he did express an interest in coming. But, due to a previous commitment at the DETROIT CONVENTION, Steranko can't appear at our CON.

And to the fans who read our previous advertisements: If the lack of STERANKO's appearance sways your interest in participating in the 1970 Metro Comic Art Convention, we will graciously refund your Regular Membership.

We again espress our regrets to the staff of the Detroit Convention for the confusion caused and we wish the Detroit Convention all the success possible for its convention!

ATTENDING PROFESSIONALS:

We have definite commitments of attending from all of the following professionals: SAL BUSCEMA JOHN G. FANTUCCHIO, STEVE HICKMAN, ROBERT L. KLINE & BERNI WRIGHTSON. These pro's will definitely attend our con (unless illness or some other unnatural phenomenon strikes them or their family); each will participate in the day's events; on panel discussions and at other social gatherings. We're convinced that these pro's are going to do their best to make our convention a successful one. With a line-up of professional attendances like these, you just couldn't help but have a good time! We don't want to build up your hopes at this time, but there is a very good chance that another professional artist working for the Marvel Comics Group will attend. This pro is certainly one of the BEST in the business. If he does make it down, he'll be a sensational SUPRISE GUEST OF HONOR! (Hint: his initials are JB!)

AUCTIONS:

There will be auctions both nights at the convention; there will be literally mounds of original artwork auctioned off; almost every attending pro has promised several beautiful drawings for auction. And to top it all off, we are actually going to auction off an hour of two professional's time. The pro's to be auctioned off, haven't been "chosen" yet; trust us, and prepare yourself for a real treat!

FILM SHOWING:

Our film showing is shaping up quite well, and of this date (May 5th) we have the first part of our film showing reserved:

This is the classical Sword & Sorcery film, "DIE NIBLUNGEN" by Fritz Lang. We have both parts of this film reserved:

Part 1: Siggfried
Part 2: Kriemhilds Rache
(Kriemhilds Revenge)

This is one of the most outstanding films of the century, produced in Germany in 1923. We are trying to reserve several more films (including the old Captain Marvel Serial and the series of ten animated Superman Cartoons from Paramount Pictures). A more complete listing of what will be shown at the 1970 Metro Comic Art Convention will be published in our Progress Report).

DEALERS

Dealers Tables are available on the following basis: One table (6' x 3') for both day's - $15.00. This includes the cost of the admission fee for TWO people (Logically thought to take care of the table(s)). Please send all dealers fees to: MICHAEL CATRON
5909 Fisher Rd. Apt. 103
Oxon Hill, Maryland 20031
Also, you may want to ask for a brochure onour Dealer-by-proxy Service.

ADVERTISING:

Although there will be a Progress Report, advertising will only be accepted for the Program Book. Ad rates will be sent on request. Simply write: JAMES STEWART
5502 Fenwood Avenue
Oxon Hill, Maryland 20021
and request copies of our ad rates.

HOTEL:

The hotel, and thusly the Meeting Rooms location has not been finalized. We have narrowed our selections down to TWO hotels in the area. But, before we rent these for the two convention day's, we must have at least a thumb-nail sketch of the attending comic book fans. One of the Hotel's (The Howard Johnson Motor Lodge) will comfortably hold only 350 people while the second hotel (The Holiday Inn) will comfortably hold over 500 people. Both of these hotels/meeting rooms are within minutes of each other, and are both directly off the Capital Beltway, so this small inconvienence should not deter you from coming, as the traveling distance differs only by ONE mile! Our decision of the location of the convention will be published in our Progress Report (Due out June 22nd).

LOCATION:

Both hotels now in consideration for the convention (The Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge and the Holiday Inn) are located in Alexandria, Virginia --- approximately 4 or 5 miles from the Maryland border. Directions on how to get to the convention site, along with the hotel selected will be printed in the Progress Report.

THE COMIC WORLD

THE COMIC WORLD

If you're tired of jazzy pinup magazines filled with half baked trivia, scratchy illustrations and two page articles...if you are a serious comic collector who wants a fanzine devoted to intelligent discussion, in-depth research and competent illustration, then what you want is THE COMIC WORLD.

After two years in the army, and another year of settling back into civilian life, we have brought back THE COMIC WORLD with the same format, style and writing which made us a top selling magazine in the past. The times have changed, and so have we. For one thing we're monthly now, and for another we're photo offset cover to cover. One thing that has not changed is our editorial policy. THE COMIC WORLD is still devoted to the principle that any subject worth writing about is worth covering in depth, and detail. You'll find no two and three page shortie articles in COMIC WORLD, only good substantial writing, well illustrated and well laid out.

THE COMIC WORLD #14 is now out, featuring forty full sized pages of the best in information and analysis of the comics field. Our features include---

THE BLACK TERROR — a complete, detailed examination of Nedar's most popular comic creation covering every phase of his existence, with illustrations taken from the original comics.

INFORMATION CENTER — our traditional, award winning column devoted to answering any and all questions concerning any phase of comicdom

ALEX SHOMBERG — a complete analysis of Shomberg's art style and technique with special emphasis on his subject development; a complete, objective article about the man whose distinctive cover art literally sold two complete lines of comics

Plus all the regular features and goodies which round out every issues of THE COMIC WORLD. Whether you are an old reader of long standing, or a new comer meeting us for the first time, we're sure you'll agree, that if you like comics, you're sure to like every issue of THE COMIC WORLD.

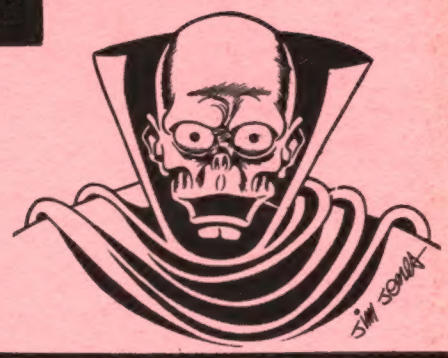
FANDOM ANNUAL

2ND ISSUE



We, the staff of the SFCA, are proud to present what we feel is the finest publication ever to come out of the ranks of comic fandom. While it is made up, partly, of material reprinted from various fanzines (SPA FON #3,4,5, GOSH WOW #1, ALTER EGO #6, THE COLLECTOR #13, and MANY others), this annual would have to be called a book rather than a fanzine. It has regular hard-back binding, with the covers printed on 120 lb. varnished stock. And it contains a total of 156 pages. To list the entire contents in detail would take about 4 pages, so we will just touch on a few of the topics. To start things off we have a panoramic front and back cover in full color by John Richardson (who also supplied several other pieces of brand new art). We have a 9-page pictorial review of the evolution of the BATMOBILE and BATPLANE by Biljo White; the whole 19-page "Savage Earth" strip by Don Newton that ran in RB&CC (a collector's item in itself); an interview with Joe Kubert by Ronn Foss; "Foundations in Fantasy" (an EC article by Rich Hauser); a Fantucchio folio featuring some of John's best work; a Frazetta folio featuring, among other things, full page cover reproductions of BUSTER CRABBE #5 and GHOST RIDER #3; plus much, much more. No matter what you like (Disney, EC, super hero comics; art by Newton, Black, Wrightson, Frazetta, Fantucchio, etc.) you'll find a giant dose in this fabulous book. For $5.00 it may well be the biggest bargain fandom has ever seen. And remember, the above is only part of the material to be found in this annual; there are many more features of equal excellence that have not been listed. Send $5.00 for each copy you want to THE SFCA, 9875 S.W. 212th Street, Miami, Florida 33157. Add $1.25 if you want it mailed first class.
